Curvature of the Spine.

DR. HAMILTON,
No. 47, North Gay street, Baltimore, HAVING turned much of his attention during a long practice to the diseases of the spine, begs leave to tender his services for the cure or relief of that afflicting malady. The approach of this disease is easily detected by an attentive observer.
It makes its appearance generally in children between the second and sixth year; a protuberance of one or more of the small bones composing the spine becomes evident, loss of appetite, irregularity of the bowels, and emaciation soon follow, together with much disinclination to walk, and unless immediate aid is obtained, death or incurable decrepitude through life are the certain consequences.

Dr. Hamilton has the satisfaction of knowing that his treatment of this disease, and application of the necessary apparatus, which is simplified at the same time, that it is materially improved, have received the unqualified approbation of many of the most eminent of his medical brethren in Baltimore. Spring cures, upon a new principle, can be applied for the use of young ladies evincing a tendency to this disease, which, while they afford the most effective support for either side, may be worn without observation. Satisfactory references might be given to parents whose children have profited by this improved mode of treatment, did not delicacy forbid the publication; they may be easily obtained if desired, by a private interview.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for over—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; add where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE.

AND
Alexandria Daily Advertiser.

PUBLISHED BY
SAMUEL SNOWDEN,
ROYAL-STREET.

Daily Gazette, 7 dols...Country, 5 dols.

TUESDAY, MAY 11, 1819.

From the New-York Gazette of May 8.
Translated from the Ministerial Gazette of Chili, of the 23d of January 1818.

The U. S. frigate Ontario, Capt. Biddle, having left Valparaiso suddenly on the 31st ultimo, which, having excited various rumors, we now publish, for the satisfaction of all, the literal correspondence between the Vice-Admiral of the naval forces of Chili (Lord Cochrane) and Capt. Biddle.

No. 1.—Copy of a letter from Lord Cochrane to Capt. Biddle, dated Valparaiso, Dec. 27, 1818.

Sir—I have been much flattered by the visit with which you have honored me, and which I consider as an honor done me, in consequence of the station I hold as commander in chief of the naval forces of the government of Chili. I cannot forget the respect due to you, and will call to see you the first opportunity.

The fulfilling my duty to the government I have the honor to serve, is superior to all personal considerations, and I therefore beg permission to remind you, that from the length of time you have been in public service, you cannot have been left ignorant of the fact, that when vessels of war of a foreign nation enter friendly ports, it has always been the custom to give a public salute to that flag. I know of but one exception, which was, when the American frigate Essex arrived at Gibraltar in the year 1802, which vessel omitted to salute the flag of Lord Keith, who was then the English Admiral on command at that station. The latter was of opinion that it was the duty of the commander of the Essex to fire the customary salute, or if he refused, he should leave the port immediately. Instead of saluting, the Essex left the port; but, on the arrival of Com. Truxton, he not only saluted the vessel which bore the Admiral's flag, but, by the order of the same Commodore, the Essex left Algeze-ras for Gibraltar, and was ordered to fulfil the compliment, not only for his former omission, but for his anterior return.

For my part, I have no personal sentiments on this subject; but allow me to assure you of my profound respect for your government and your person. I have the honor, &c.

No. 2.—Capt. Biddle to Lord Cochrane, dated on board the Ontario, before Valparaiso, Dec. 28, 1818.

Sir—In answer to your letter of yesterday, I have the honor to state, that the visit which I made to your lordship on my arrival, was in the capacity of an officer of the U. S. navy, and as a mark of my respect for the commanding officer of the naval forces of the Chilian government.

I know well that when a vessel of war arrives in a foreign port, it is customary to fire a public salute, and my knowledge of this circumstance was what induced me, when I entered this port in January, to give formal advice of my arrival to the Governor, and notify him, that I would fire the customary salute, if it would be answered with an equal number of guns. My offer to salute was not accepted, and consequently, your lordship, will see with how much propriety I excuse myself from not doing it.

I have the honor to be, &c.

No. 3.—From Lord Cochrane to Capt. Biddle, dated Valparaiso, Dec. 28, 1818.

Sir—I have received the letter with which you favored me in answer to mine of yesterday, and beg permission to observe, that being ignorant of the rules of the American government as respects the number of guns with which its commanders are authorized to fire, in answering the salutes of foreign vessels of war who enter their ports, if you will give me your word of honor that the American commanders uniformly, without considering the comparative rank or the locality, to answer with an equal number of guns the salutes of all foreign men of war, I will give new orders that your salute shall be answered in the same way. Moreover, as in all other services with which I have had communications, it is customary that the admiral's vessel should answer with two guns less, the salute of the foreign vessels of war, which do not bear the insignia of a corresponding rank, my instructions, until this moment, have been conformably thereto.

The alteration of the usual mode of procedure, in similar circumstances (as respects the United States) must be regulated by the communication which you made me upon this subject.

I have the honor, &c.

No. 4.—Capt. Biddle to Lord Cochrane, dated on board the Ontario, Dec. 28, 1818.

Sir—I have had the honor to receive the communication with which your lordship honored me this morning. The object of my former letter was to excuse myself entirely from making the salute, and consequently it is not necessary to know whether the salute of the Ontario shall be answered with an equal or less number of guns.— When a government vessel enters a foreign port, the salute is a mere matter of courtesy, and entirely arbitrary—it is sometimes practised and at others it is omitted.

With respect to what your lordship informs me relative to the U. S. frigate Essex, I beg leave to inform your lordship, that your statement is erroneous; for Com.
Truxton never commanded a squadron in the Mediterranean; and I am persuaded that my friend Captain Bainbridge, who commanded the Essex in 1802, would not have suffered himself to be ordered to leave the port in the manner you state.

I have the honor, &c.

No. 5.—Lord Cochrane to Capt. Biddle, dated Valparaiso, same date.

Sir—The letter with which you favored me this morning, and in which you inform me that your visit was "in your capacity of officer of the United States Navy, and as a mark of your respect for the officer who commands the naval forces of the Chilian government," you leave me to understand that in omitting the salute, you could have no intention of failing in the respect you owe the Chilian flag; the more so, when in the sentence which follows, you plainly confess that you knew, "when a vessel of war entered a foreign port, it is customary to fire a salute; and that the knowledge of this circumstance induced you, when you entered this port in January ultimo, to give formal advice of your arrival to the government, and gave him notice that you would fire a customary salute, if it would be answered with an equal number of guns." Imagine, then, my astonishment on receiving this evening your written declaration in which you state, "that the object of your letter was to excuse yourself entirely from making the salute, and consequently it was not necessary to know whether the vessel under your command should be answered with an equal or a less number of guns."

This is a public affair, but imagine, sir, what were my personal feelings, when I find that you add in the same letter, that
"when a government vessel enters a foreign port, the salute is merely a matter of courtesy—it is entirely arbitrary—that it is at times practised, and at others omitted."

Conceive, sir, I repeat, what are my particular feelings, when I compare your last communication with one of your former ones, in which you state, that "when a vessel of war arrives in a foreign port it was customary to fire a salute." When I compare this with the offer which you made to the governor on your arrival in January, to make the customary salute, if it would be answered with an equal number of guns —when I compare this with the knowledge I have (and which is incontroverta-ble) that in no part of a civilized nation, the power which is saluted, never answers with an equal number of guns.

As respects the affair at Gibraltar, which I mentioned in my letter, I have not erred in fact, although I may, perhaps, have been mistaken as to particulars of no importance.

I plainly perceive the very unfavorable predicament in which you are placed; and you cannot feel it more sensibly than I do.
But this will deprive me of doing that, which, before the receipt of your last letter, would have given me great satisfaction, and that is, of returning your visit, which I cannot now do consistently with my feelings, until an explanation conciliates the apparent contradictions which exist in your public letters.

Yours, &c.

No. 6.—Lord Cochrane to Capt. Biddle, dated
Dec. 30.

In consequence of the respect and consideration which, in your first letter, you manifested for the Chilian government, and the amicable intercourse which subsists, and which I hope, will long continue between the United States and this country, I have to request of you, in the event of your intention soon to leave the port, to be pleased to postpone your departure until after the sailing of the squadron, which is on the point of going to sea.

Yours, &c.

Captain Biddle to Lord Cochrane, December 30.

In answer to your Lordship's letter, I have the honor to inform you, that altho' I am anxious to put to sea without delay, and notwithstanding I had it in contemplation to sail this morning—yet, as I am desirous to accede to whatever may be agreeable to the Chilian government as far as it is in my power, I have determined to remain in port during this day—but it will be my indispensable duty to sail to-morrow, and I hope that the delay of this day will be sufficient to accomplish the views of the Chilian government; and, to speak the truth, as my object is to double Cape Horn, it seems to me that my departure cannot be in any way prejudicial to the views of the squadron.

I have the honor, &c.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

By the arrival last evening of the ship Thames, Capt Peck, in 28 days from the Downs, we have received our regular files of London papers to the evening of the 3rd of April inclusive, and General Shipping and Commercial Lists to the 2d.

Among the extracts on our first page will be found a particular and interesting account of the assassination of the celebrated M. Augustus de Kotzebue at his residence in Mannheim, on the 23d of March. By this account it appears that the assassin failed in his attempt to add to the crime of murder, that of suicide, and although severely wounded, he is likely to recover sufficiently to receive the punishment due to so atrocious a criminal.

Our readers will recollect the account published last winter, that the French General Gourgaud had been seized at his lodgings in London, by order of Lord Sidmouth and sent out of the Kingdom. A Memorial on the subject from Gen. G. was introduced into Parliament on the 2d of April, which gave rise to an interesting debate.
We have commenced the publication of this debate this evening, and shall continue it in our next.

Letters from Rome of the 13th of March, say, that some shocks of an earthquake were experienced at Palermo on the 24th & 25th of February. They were chiefly felt at the mountain Della Madonna, where several persons perished by the sinking of the earth.

In the House of Commons on the 2nd of April, the Ministers were asked, whether the vessels that had been chartered by the Spanish Government, for the conveyance of troops to South America, acted with the privilege or consent of his Majesty's government. Lord Castlereagh replied, "that the transactions in question were purely commercial, and that the parties who engaged in them acted upon their own discretion, and at their own peril as to the consequences that might ensue."

An article from Cadiz, of March 9th, says that the expedition for Lima, is to be augmented by two ships of the line, from the grand armament destined for Buenos Ayres.
The troops who go out in this expedition are to consist of 16,000 men.

"It would be well that all shipments from the United States be accompanied by the Certificate of the Portuguese Consul, in order to avoid detention at the quarantine ground, &c. By a law of the 20th June 1817, the importation of foreign rice

Charleston, May 4.

THE PRESIDENT'S DEPARTURE.

Yesterday morning, about 12 o'clock, the President of the United States took leave of the citizens of Charleston. He was escorted from his residence in Broad-street, by Capt. Rhunhart's Cavalry, captain Paine's corps of mounted riflemen, the artillery and uniformed infantry of the 7th brigade, under command of brigadier gen. Rutledge, and a large number of citizens on horseback, to Charleston Bridge Ferry. In the vicinity of the Ferry, the troops were halted, formed in two lines, and saluted the President as he passed through. He was escorted to the water's edge by the mounted escort, all the field officers and citizens, where he took an affectionate leave of the whole; impressed, we have no doubt, with exalted ideas of the hospitality and friendship of the inhabitants of Charleston. His excellency crossed the river in the elegant barge which first landed him among us, rowed by 21 seamen. We understand he was to lodge last night at the country seat of the hon.

Henry Middleton, about 12 miles from this town. The Hon. Mr. Calhoun, secretary at war, and Colonel Condy, one of the Governor's aids, will accompany the President as far as Savannah.

Boston, May 5.

A building 93 feet by 35, situated in the State Prison yard, at Concord, N. H. was consumed on Thursday night last—supposed to have been set on fire by one of the prisoners.

Columbia, (S. C.) May 4.

A hail storm, perhaps the most destructive ever known in this state, passed thro' Fairfield district, on Sunday evening the 25th ult. destroying the crops of corn, cotton, and wheat, in its progress, and in some places throwing down and unroofing houses and tearing up abundance of the stoutest trees of the forest by the roots; the hails were very large, and fell in such quantities that when our informant, who was one of the sufferers, left home on Thursday last, the fourth day after the storm, the hail still lay on the ground in many places, six or eight inches thick; the fruit and leaves were entirely beaten off the trees, and the limbs of the trees in many places almost literally peeled with the violence of the hail.
In short, it is said that wherever it passed in its greatest violence, not a vestige of the growing crop of corn and cotton remains.

Since writing the above, we have been informed that the same cloud passed through that part of Richland district which joins Kershaw district, between Columbia and Camden, where its destructive effects exceeded what is above described; that incredible as it may appear, it actually killed pigs of considerable size, and a number of fowls and turkeys; the hail being as large as hens eggs; and that on Friday last, waggon loads of them were still lying on the ground—that the rain also fell in such torrents, that it swept away all the loose soil, where the land was not perfectly level; the gentlemen from whom we derived our information, had a beautiful field of wheat not a stalk of which could be seen after the storm.

COMMUNICATION.

Taken up and committed to the jail of Guilford County on the evening of the 29th April, three men by the names of Wm. Broadvine Brassure, Wm. Fortner, and John Marsh, all of the county of Surry, for passing counterfeit money; and after being examined there was a considerable quantity found in their possession, viz.
20 dollar bills on the Planters Bank of Georgia; 10 dollar bills on the State Bank of Georgia; 5 dollar bills on the Union Bank of Georgetown, D. C.; and 5 dollar bills on the State Bank of Virginia. It is said that the above named Fortner has been confined in Fayetteville jail for some time, and is now bound in recognizance to attend that court to answer a charge of the same kind.

The public is much indebted to the sheriffs of Randolph and Guilford for their activity and zeal in bringing villains to justice.

HUMAN SKELETON.

A few days ago, a young man in quest of a crow's nest, ascended the summit of Flying Hill, about three miles from this borough, where he discovered a Human Skeleton. Near the bones were found a hat, remnants of clothing, and a common pocket knife. Round the neck of the skeleton was a small piece of rope, and another piece was discovered, suspended from a tree immediately above. Conjecture has been made, but it is impossible to divine who was the unfortunate person, whose carcase by an act of insanity, must have been a prey to the birds of the air. From all appearances, it must have occurred two or three years ago.

The body of an itinerant doctor, a native of Germany, who had resided in the vicinity of this place some months, named Kornback, was discovered on a hill, a few rods west of Schuylkill bridge, suspended by the neck to the limb of a tree. The frequency of suicides in this neighborhood is really appalling. [Journal.]

MURDEROUS TRANSACTION.

Extract of a letter, dated Havana 19th April "On the 16th inst. I wrote to you by the United States' sloop of war John Adams, respecting the schooner Retrieve, and what had happened to her, and that poor captain Lewis was no more.

A few days after the Retrieve left Cadiz, and being very near the Madeiras, the mate with the schooner's tiller, killed captain Lewis by a violent blow while he was resting on the companion way, or cabin door.—The murderer immediately called the crew, and, with their assistance, threw the captain overboard, while alive. The mate assuming the command, proceeded to the port of Troxilho, (a port in the Bay of Honduras) where the vessel was refused to be admitted; from thence they directed their course to Omoa, and to secure admittance there, they pretended to be in great distress, for which purpose they made the vessel very leaky by boring a hole in her bottom. This vessel was then admitted at Omoa, without opposition, but the government wishing to ascertain the real cause of their coming into port, detained the vessel, pretending that her papers were incorrect; in the mean time, the supposed captain L. loaded an English coasting vessel in the night with brandy, saffron and oil, and the following night five of the crew made their escape in the schooner's boat, and the supposed captain went on shore with one of the crew, the only one remaining except the steward, and on landing on the beach the supposed captain had a dispute with one of the sailors, who immediately disclosed this horrid deed. The Spanish commanding officer near the landing, immediately ordered the supposed captain to be arrested and secured in a dungeon, and the sailor to the prison of the garrison, suffering the steward to remain on board under a guard of soldiers, until the vessel was unloaded, and a correct account taken of the cargo.

The supposed captain Lewis had already engaged an English coasting vessel to make his escape that very same night.

"On receiving information, I immediately laid it before the commander of the United States' sloop of war John Adams, who informed me that his orders did not go to authorize him to proceed to Omoa to claim this vessel; but on his arrival at Norfolk, he would immediately inform the government of this horrid transaction, and that no doubt the government of the United States would dispatch a vessel to go and fetch the prisoners and vessel home."

Charleston, May 3.

His B. M. ship Lee, Capt. Blacker of 22 guns, which anchored in the Roads on Saturday afternoon, was despatched from England, in December last, in pursuit of the piratical ship Louisa, commanded by capt.
Almeyda, which had committed many depredations in some ports of the Western Islands, and their neighborhood. The Lee has visited the Canaries, Madeira, St. Thomas, Aux-Coyes, Jamaica, and several other places, and is last from Havana. It is understood that she visits this place with the expectation of obtaining possession of three British seamen, formerly part of the crew of the British schooner Sir Thomas Hardy, which vessel was plundered by the Louisa, at which time the seamen alluded to, entered on board the pirate. They were subsequently arrested, with several others of the Louisa's crew, and are now in jail in this city.—We understand that an application will be made this day, to the officers of the Federal District Court, by the British Consul, to have them given up, to be sent to England for trial, where the necessary evidence has been forwarded, to effect their conviction.

Extract of a letter, to the editors of the Boston Patriot, dated Gibraltar, March 30, 1816.

A few weeks since a laughable circumstance took place at Alhucemas, the fortress on the coast of Africa, where part of our Countrymen (Americans) are confined.
A man was appointed to wait upon them, who a few nights after escaped and swam over to the Moors. It seems he was formerly an artilleryman, and having an inclination for his former employ, the Moors supplied him with a cannon & ammunition, and he has actually besieged the garrison —every ball he discharges takes effect, and the Spaniards cannot hit him. The last accounts give no hopes of the siege being raised.

REFORMATION IN BONAPARTE.

It has been remarked, that in all Bonaparte's arrangements for his establishments at Elba and St. Helena, he never made any provision for a chaplain. It appears he now begins to be more seriously disposed, and that at his request two ecclesiastics (one an Abbe) have obtained the permission of the allied monarchs and the pope, to repair to St. Helena to form a religious establishment there. It is added, that Madame Letitia Bonaparte, (mother to Napoleon) has presented a full service of communion plate, and decorations for the altar, to this establishment.

Married.

On Thursday evening last, in Washington City, by the Rev. Mr. McCormick, Mr.
WILLIAM SOMMERS to Miss MARY CASH, both of this place.

Notice.

The Council will sit as a Court of Appeals, from the hours of 10 to 2 o'clock, on the 20th 21st and 22nd days of the present month, at which time all persons interested are requested to attend, as no appeals will be heard, or remissions made, after the adjournment of the Court.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Potomac creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania. I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole; it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well-selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment. Letters must be addressed to me at Pockick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.
September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate, and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence. The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutritious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 180 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—It would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or Oct 6 FRANCIS ADAMS, Jr.

To Rent.

This lot is 117 feet deep—the front room and half the cellar might be rented by a single person, if agreed for. Enquire of the subscriber.

For Sale or Rent.

And possession given immediately. Mount Eagle, with 35 to 40 acres of land, enclosed with a good post and rail fence, situated in Fairfax co. Va. and within a short mile of Alexandria. It commands a fine view of that town, the city of Washington, and a part of Georgetown—also of the river Potomac and of the country around. The improvements are, a handsome and convenient frame dwelling house, with kitchen wash house and pantry, under the same roof—smoke house, stable and carriage house, with a never failing spring of good water.

It is desirable to a purchaser, I will add a part of the Spring Bank Tract, contiguous to it, on the west side of the Mount Vernon Road, containing 65 to 70 acres, part of which is in wood and the remainder cleared, with a good post and rail fence.

Also, for sale or rent—my three story brick warehouse on King street, next door to M. T. Stribling's flour warehouse.

Hat Manufactory.

THE subscriber returns his thanks to his friends and the public for their former liberal encouragement, and solicits a continuance of their patronage, and takes this method to inform them that he has lately established his factory on a more extensive scale than heretofore, and flatters himself that he will be enabled to execute any orders that he should be favored with in a style equal to any other hatter in the country. Gentlemen wishing hats made particularly for them, can get them at the shortest notice, and on as good terms as to the north. He continues to keep an assortment of hatters' furs; low price fur hats, cheap; logwood and trimmings, all of which will be sold low. ROMULUS RIGGS.

At his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeiters of the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on.

Snuff,

For Catarrh & Headache.

THIS Snuff, as celebrated for its agreeable fragrance as for its efficacy in the cure of recent catarrh and slow nervous headache, is used and approved by the present professor of chemistry in the university of Cambridge, mass. and by some of the most respectable gentlemen of the faculty in the United States.—It is also particularly recommended by Dr Waterhouse, late professor of the theory and practice of physic, in the above seminary—whose certificate accompanies each bottle.—Sold by JAMES KENNEDY & SON, Sept 24 Sole Agents for Alexandria.

Vaccine Institution.

THE small pox having appeared in Alexandria, such persons as have been vaccinated by the subscriber are invited to attend at his office, on St. Asaph-street, between Prince and Duke streets, to have their arms examined. Indigent persons are also invited to the same place for the purpose of being vaccinated. The subscriber will attend at his office every day in the week except Sunday, from 7 o'clock until 10 in the morning, for the purpose of receiving them.

He proposes also to be less particular than heretofore in the investigation of their claims to the benefit of the institution, as may respect their indigence and length of residence in town. The subscriber earnestly requests all such citizens as may be acquainted with persons liable to contagion, to send them without delay as above directed, where they will be served effectually and gratuitously.
